

Easter....

The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible...All things have been created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all God's fullness in him, and through him to reconcile to Godself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

(Col 1, 15-20)
